Practicing a martial art can be dangerous and life threatening. There is always a risk of serious injury including broken bones, joint damage, back and neck injury, concussion and brain injury, eye and hearing injury, and even risk of death. I understand and accept all risks, waive and release any and all claims, for any damages to me or my child, seen or unseen, including negligence, from my or my child's participation in the martial arts activities with the Christian JuJitsu Association. I indemnify, defend, and hold harmless the owners, officers, instructors, and members of the Christian JuJitsu Association.

The applicant (or parent/guardian) must initial each diagram in this document, indicating that they have seen and understood the serious implication and danger of participation in the martial arts!

I have read and understood all that appears on BOTH sides of this application and I agree with ALL the provisions of membership. I promise that all information I have given is true and complete.
